Location - Sheet

Situated on the northerly edge of Petersfield the village of Sheet is a small village clustered around the village green and its splendid horse chestnut tree that was planted in 1897 to commemorate Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee which dominates the whole triangular green. Across from the green is the village church St. Mary Magdalen and the popular Queens Head public house. The village also has a primary school, Stepping Stones pre-school, the Little School Day Nursery and Sheet Parish Allotments. The market town of Petersfield nearby offers a comprehensive range of shops, schools, mainline station and leisure facilities.
