Location - South Harting

South Harting is a West Sussex village south-east of Petersfield. Petersfield is 17 miles north of Portsmouth on the A3 road. The town has its own railway station on the mainline rail link connecting Portsmouth and London (Waterloo). The town is situated on the northern slopes of the South Downs. Petersfield lies wholly within an area of outstanding national beauty and within the boundary of the newly created South Downs National Park. The town is on the crossroads of the well used north-south (A3) and east-west (A272) routes and it originally grew as a coach stop on the Portsmouth to London route.
