Chapel Street, Petersfield

We are excited to present a wonderful opportunity for a commercial premises in the centre of Petersfield. Currently a café, this shop is located in a prime location on Chapel Street, this premises has previously been used for a café, a chocolate shop as well as an antique store.

There is a front door with large windows as well as a side door which is accessed through the cobbled street.

There is a large bright shop which currently has space for many tables, as well as a sink and storage unit which would remain, please note that the rest of the property would be empty and ready for a new business to make it their own. Finally, there is a separate W.C.

Please contact Williams of Petersfield to arrange a viewing.
